

please write an acrostic poem based on the word caffeine

Coffee, tea, and soda too,
Always give me a much-needed boost,
Few can resist your power and charm,
Few can deny your energizing form,
Energy in a cup, you keep us going,
Inside our brains, your magic is flowing,
Not a morning passes without your aid,
Every sip of you, a delight to be savored.

please write a free verse, unrhymed poem about oranges

The oranges hang heavy on the trees
Bright globes of sunshine amidst the leaves
Their skin is tough, yet soft to the touch
A protective layer, hiding the fruit's sweet blush

Picking the fruit, we feel their weight
A gift from nature, ripened by fate
Inhaling their scent, we're transported
To a place of warmth, of light, of comfort
